Janice Mumford—Janice is a graduate of USDF's "L" program for judges. She is a successful FEI-level rider and has earned her USDF Bronze and Silver medals. Prior to entering the Dressage arena, Janice showed quarter horses on the AQUA circuit, specializing in the hunter divisions. She recently attended NCSU's Open Horse Show Judges' Certification Program in Raleigh, NC. For several years, Janice has helped all levels of riders advance their horsemanship skills by teaching for Kathy Rowse in her absence and any else who needs assistance. Janice judges several dressage shows

Robyn Nunnally— Robyn grew up riding hunters over fences, including intercollegiate competition as part of the William & Mary riding team. Then she showed Arabians for almost 20 years, winning national titles in several divisions such as show hack, dressage, hunter pleasure, and sidesaddle. Robyn has been training riders and horses for over 20 years. She is NCSU Certified Open Horse Show Judge in all divisions: hunter, western, saddleseat and gaited. Robyn rides regularly with Kathy Rowse and Jim Koford to continue her riding education.
